

The McCook Tribune.

SIXTEENTH YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 18, 1898.

NUMBER 44

The City Council.

There was a full board present at the meeting of the city council, Monday night. The following bills were allowed and warrants ordered drawn for same on the proper funds:

McCook Electric Light Co. $85 00
H. P. Waite. 2 60
J. S. McBrayer, claim $17.75, allowed at 4 00

The treasurer's report was read and placed on file.

A committee from the board of education was present and made a partial report of the condition of the finances of the public schools. It was decided that a similar committee would meet with the council at its next regular meeting, when a full statement of the school's finances will be offered, and a request will be filed for the entire amount of money derived from the issuance of saloon licenses. Supt. Valentine thanked the council for hearty cooperation with the board and thanked the marshal for his assistance in carrying out health regulations.

The request from the cemetery committee that C. B. Rowell be appointed sexton of Longview was granted and the nomination of the mayor was confirmed.

The specifications for the proposed new court house were read and compared and the same were adopted and signed.

The protest of J. S. LeHew against the appointment of C. H. Meeker as superintendent of construction of the court house was taken up and the same was rejected.

The council then adjourned to Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock to approve bond of Contractor James McAdams.

At the adjourned session all were present except Councilman Perry. The bond offered by James McAdams was duly approved. The bond is in the sum of $5,000, and A. Barnett and V. Franklin are the sureties. Adjourned.

A War Measure.

A highly esteemed citizen objects to the printing of certain patent medicine advertisements which appear in THE TRIBUNE, and the publisher grants the "kick." It is just and eminently proper. When THE TRIBUNE was patronized at home as it ought to be now, no foreign advertisements found their way into our columns, much less what might be in any sense objectionable. But with the meager advertising patronage given of late years by the home merchants and others, the sale of space to outsiders has been necessary as a matter of self-preservation. It costs money to publish a creditable newspaper.

Sudden Death of an Old Soldier.

David Keithley, an old soldier of South McCook, passed away, last Sunday, after an illness of not more than thirty minutes. Heart disease was the cause. The deceased was born in Pennsylvania sixty-three years ago. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted in the South McCook Methodist church, Tuesday morning, by Elder H. H. Berry, who was assisted by Rev. J. M. Bell, interment in Longview cemetery following. THE TRIBUNE tenders sympathy to the bereaved ones.

A Series of Meetings.

The Christian church has arranged to hold a series of meetings at the usual hours, beginning next Lord's Day morning and evening, March 20th, to be conducted by the state evangelists, Lemon and Travis.

For this occasion a large tabernacle 32 x 48 feet, has been erected just south of the Baptist church. It will seat about 400 persons and will be well lighted and heated. Everybody invited and welcome. BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

A Fine Lecture.

The lecture by Chancellor W. F. McDowell of Denver in the Methodist church, last Saturday night, was a splendid effort, well worth the hearing, and enjoyed by all who heard it. The somewhat fanciful topic of the lecture was "Today and Tomorrow," and the thoughts advanced on different lines and the handling of the ideas presented were effective and able. The lecture was under Epworthian auspices.

Poultry Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Republican valley poultry association in Odd Fellows' hall over Ganschow's shoe store at 4 p. m., Monday, March 21st, with the purpose in view of making arrangements for the next annual exhibition. J. S. LEHEW, Secretary.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish in this way to express to all those who so willingly and helpfully assisted during the illness and after the death of our father, our sincerest thanks and warmest gratitude.

MRS. C. B. ROWELL received a telegram, Wednesday, announcing the death of her brother, T. M. Stanley of Decatur City, Iowa. He was on his way to Louisiana, for his health, and died in Green county, Iowa, at the home of his mother-in-law. THE TRIBUNE offers its sympathy.

An Harmonious Caucus.

A large number of men of one mind attended and participated in the Republican city caucus held in the city hall, Monday evening, as per call made in the Republican papers of the city, last week, and the following proceedings were had in a most harmonious spirit:

In the absence of Chairman C. I. Hall of the city committee, J. A. Wilcox of the committee called the caucus to order and read the call. On motion of Ed. Jordan, C. F. Babcock was made chairman of caucus. He took the chair after delivering a brief and pointed speech. On motion of H. W. Cole, the editors of the Republican papers of the city were chosen secretaries of the caucus, and F. M. Kimmell being present assumed the duties of the office.

J. E. Kelley was placed in nomination for mayor by H. H. Troth, and the nomination was made by acclamation. Ray Hall placed C. I. Hall before the caucus for clerk, and he was unanimously chosen.

Dr. S. L. Green felt the inspiration of the occasion. Felt good always to meet in a Republican caucus and was glad to see so many out. Said that a continuance of the wisdom thus far displayed in nominations meant success. He placed E. J. Wilcox before the caucus for treasurer and the choice was made by acclamation.

C. F. Babcock was placed in nomination for police judge by Dr. S. L. Green. Mr. Babcock declined the honor, but the doctor suggested that it was not the rule to decline and Mr. Babcock was unanimously chosen.

J. A. Wilcox named C. N. Whittaker for the office of engineer, and the nomination was made by acclamation.

For members of the board of education, J. S. LeHew named E. H. Doan and H. W. Cole named R. B. Archibald. Dr. Green seconded the nomination of Mr. Doan because he was not afraid to come before a convention for a nomination. Both nominations were made by acclamation.

On motion of C. G. Coglier the present city committee, consisting of Messrs. C. I. Hall, J. A. Wilcox, R. B. Archibald, W. S. Perry and C. B. Gray, was continued.

A division of the house was had and nominations for members of city council were made as follows:

In the first ward, H. H. Troth was made chairman. G. S. Bishop named L. W. McConnell for councilman and the choice was made by acclamation.

The second ward voters called C. I. Hall to the chair. Ed. Jordan placed the name of W. S. Morlan before the caucus and his selection for councilman was made by acclamation.

The caucus then adjourned, having finished the work of the evening without incident within a half hour's time.

The important nominees of the ticket are strong: J. E. Kelley for mayor insures the city a thoroughly business-like administration; and the nominations of W. S. Morlan and L. W. McConnell for councilmen are particularly strong. Both are well-informed, careful and successful men who will bring to the council wisdom and experience. The nominations of R. B. Archibald and E. H. Doan for members of the board of education will meet with large approval, as their services on the board in the past have been satisfactory. As to the minor and clerical nominees, they are all well qualified for the positions for which they have been selected. Victory doubtless awaits the entire ticket.

Miss Fair and Mrs. Mitchell Young went to McCook to the teachers' association, Saturday. They report a good attendance and well rendered programme. The teachers were entertained in the high school building by the Twelfth grade. The refreshments and service were highly complimented. Miss Fair and Mrs. Young met with an accident on their return home. One horse fell and broke the tongue of the buggy. The ladies got out and unhitched the horses and, after considerable difficulty in mounting and managing the horses, they completed their journey on horseback.—Danbury Topics.
